RC Council Delays Action on Resignation Of Dr. A. E. O'Neill

Dr. A. E. O'Neill, member of the city's personnel board, this week presented a letter of resignation to the city council in a move that promises to bring fireworks to the council's study meeting next Monday night.

In his letter to the council, Dr. O'Neil expressed his displeasure of City Mgr. E. A. Rolison and his administrative assistant, Richard Miller.

Councilman Flyod D. Granger moved to accept the doctor's resignation with a vote of thanks but Councilmen Carl A. Britschgi and Arthur V. Swift declined to accept Granger's motion.

Britschgi declared "there was something behind this" and told councilmen he "wanted to hear Dr. O'Neill out" at the council's study meeting Monday evening.

It had been reported previously that Dr. O'Neill had resigned from the board but this was the first official notice the council had received on the matter, according to City Clerk Ralph Dodge.

In other action on the council's agenda last night the proposed peddlers ordinance was set aside until the next meeting to allow the city attorney to draw up proposed amendments to the ordinance.

Councilmen found themselves in a legal entanglement over the city's money regarding the proposed fire hydrants in the Friendly Acres area. After considerable discussion, they authorized the city manager to purchase fire hydrants for the area and take the money from the city's capital expenditure account.

Councilman H. E. Holmquist said plans for getting the hydrants on a rental basis had failed and he recommended that the city consider buying the hydrants at their expense.

Councilman Granger objected to taking the money from the capital expenditure fund, declaring he thought the money should come from the water department's fund.

The city manager said, however, he thought the matter was a general city obligation and councilmen approved the measure to let Rolison go ahead with planning the work.

Councilmen also:

Put the study of overtime provisions for city employes on the agenda until the next meeting for further report.

Authorized the city manager to sign contracts to draw up plans and specifications for the new swimming pool at the Recreation Center.

Tabled abatement proceedings on the Bullock property.

Approved an ordinance establishing the hourly rate of $1 as the salary for school crossing guards.

Approved final payment on the Pulgas and Bayshore Hwy. sewer project.

Granted the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. an easement over Harbor Blvd.

Authorized Fire Chief Joseph L. Lodi to make a further study of the street lighting problems in the Johnson St. area.

Denied Contractor L. C. Smith's request for a time extension on construction on Stanley-Westgate, Eagle Hill Alleys and Virginia Ave.

Heard report on bid openings for new street signs, rock fill for the animal shelter and the painting job on the city hall and library.

Approved resolution confirming the Kensington Square assessment diagram.

Approved the Central Park Number 2 assessment.

Approved a resolution authorizing expenditure of gas tax funds on Kensington Square:

Approved a resolution calling for a "speed up" on the proposed Bayshore Hwy. Freeway extension through Redwood City.

Approved a resolution supporting over and under passes at Southern Pacific grade crossings.

Denied W. T. Chapple's request for water service in the Emerald Lake area.

Ordered the city clerk to write a letter to the Southern Pacific Co. protesting the blocking of traffic by the railroad at Middlefield Rd. and Chestnut Sts.

Ordered the city clerk to prepare a letter to the Southern Pacific Co. urging the railroad to maintain upkeep of grade crossings.

Defer Action On Mortuary Project Here

The Redwood City Council Monday decided to take a "hands off" attitude on the request of the Redeemer Lutheran Church to establish a mortuary on the property after it was advised by Acting City Atty. C. W. Lebsack that any move the council might take now would be "superfluous."

Lebsack told councilmen the proponents of the proposed mortuary had 30 days in which to appeal the planning commission's action which had recommended against the project.

Council action was such as to place the matter on the agenda for the 30-day appeal period after which time, probably at the next regular meeting, it then would be ready to act.

Councilman Albert H. Morgan Jr. moved to deny the application but was told by the acting city attorney that a denial now would be of a superfluous nature in that an appeal might still be pending and the council would then have to act again.

Morgan declared, however, that he wanted the expression of the council that evening and he would vote no on the matter.

"We should go ahead on this business," he added. "I've been asked to bring this thing before the council. Now let's do something about it."

Councilmen Arthur V. Swift and Robert Spillers went along with Morgan's vote but the move failed because of a lack of action on the part of other councilmen.

Councilmen Carl A. Britschgi and H. E. Holmquist backed Floyd D. Granger who declined to vote on the measure.

"I won't vote on it," Granger declared, "because I don't want to be put in a position where I might have to change my vote if an appeal is made."

He declared he didn't think it was a question of "kicking the matter around," because, under the law, the proponents of the measure were entitled to 30 days in which to appeal.

Mayor William M. Werder said he "couldn't go for Morgan's motion" because it was contrary to law.

As the matter now stands, if the proponents of the mortuary do not appeal the measure within the 30-day period the proposal will be killed without council action.

RC Council Turns Down Theater Plan

City councilmen this week put an end to Oliver Johnson's plan to build a drive-in theater in the area off Woodside Rd. as they voted down the measure after hearing hour-long arguments both for and against the proposal.

The council chamber was filled to overflowing as the two attorneys, representing the protestants and Johnson, hurled a legal barrage at the councilmen.

Besides the attorneys, councilmen heard eight protestants, speaking from the floor, who told the group they were all against the measure.

After hearing arguments, the council voted unanimously to deny Johnson permission to rezone the area from R-4 to C-1 to permit erection of the theater.

Paul McCarthy, representing Johnson, was first to appear before the council. He traced the history of development in the area and declared, in his opinion, that it would be discriminatory if the theater were not allowed, "in view of the fact Woodside Rd. is characterized as business property and other property had been zoned that way recently."

"It is inevitable," McCarthy declared, "that this area will develop into business properties."

The attorney said he felt residents of the area, particularly those on Nimitz Ave., had a "greatly exaggerated" fear of the noise associated with drive-in theaters.

As far as the zoning problem was concerned, McCarthy said, the theater owner would contract with the city that the land would revert to the city's use if the property were not used as a drive-in theater.

W. M. Worthington Jr., counsel for the protestants, countered McCarthy's arguments and told councilmen he could dump "even more fuel on the fire of protesting letters than the council has already received."

The attorney expressed the concern of the residents of Nimitz Ave. who had paid to get street improvements in their area and whose children would be endangered by the traffic problem which would be created if a theater were erected in the area.

Worthington told councilmen he could also present them with another petition, bearing 87 names, all allegedly against the idea.

"Besides," said Worthington, "your County Planning Commission and the city of Atherton are both against the plan. We should abide by their decisions."

After hearing rebuttal arguments by both sides, the councilmen quickly passed a motion to deny Johnson's application.

FACE LIFTING — Workmen prepare to erase the ugly streaks that mar the sides of the Redwood City City Hall as they work on the rain gutters under the roof. Rain falling from the copper gutters has streaked the walls of the city hall and workmen are now plugging up the leaks. After this job is completed the whole city hall will get a "face lifting" with a new coat of white paint. Here scaffolding goes up on the south side of the building.

Postmaster O'Connell Asks To Mail Yule Packages Early

Bundle-bearing lines greeted postal clerks when the grill-barred post office windows opened this week.

The greatest flood of parcel post in post office history is expected this year.

"If it all comes in together, at the last minute, we'll be swamped," declares Postmaster R. E. O'Connell, Jr. "Christmas gift packages should be in the mail by Dec. 10 at the very latest."

In addition to Yule packages, the post office will be jammed with commercial shipments.

The post office went on holiday schedule yesterday. Windows will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The postmaster reports that post office windows are most crowded at lunch time. He advises mailing packages before 10 a.m. and between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. to avoid long lines and aching feet.

"It would help greatly," he declares, "if people would decide exactly what they want before they approach the windows—how much insurance on a package, whether they want it registered, and how many stamps they need.

"Remember that parcels may not be sealed unless they bear a printed label authorizing opening for postal inspection if necessary. Use corrugated cardboard, heavy outer paper, and strong cord in wrapping. The post office has to move milions of packages within the next few weeks, and they should be able to withstand normally vigorous handling.

"Please don't snap at a clerk if he advises you to rewrap a gift. He's helping you make sure it arrives in first-class condition. I've seen packages brought in that are about as sturdy as a lemon meringue pie wrapped in tissue paper."

When you're finished using a post office pen, don't slam it down and bend the point, the postmaster requests. "Naturally, they scratch a little. Each pen is used by an average of 200 people a day. We put in all new pen points a few days ago, and by Christmas we'll have to replace them all."

O'Connell is asking householders to make sure their house numbers are clearly visible from the street, and that their names appear on their post boxes, as an aid to emergency carriers unfamiliar with the routes.

Including zone numbers in addresses greatly facilitates handling, the postmaster emphasized. Christmas cards for out-of-state delivery should be deposited by Dec. 15, and greetings for local delivery at least a week before Christmas.

DC Murder Hearing Set For Dec. 16

Three men charged with the murder of Martin Breslauer, Daly City bookie, had their hopes of being set at liberty dashed Tuesday when their attorney's request for dismissal of charges was abruptly denied in Daly City Municipal Court.

Accused are John (Midge) Ruano, 34, Roy (Fats) Teller, 26, and the latter's brother, Joe Teller, 30.

Judge William Sweeney set Dec. 16 at 10 a.m. as time for preliminary hearing and ordered the trio remanded into custody of the sheriff without bail.

Meantime San Mateo County deputy sheriffs and district attorney investigators were waiting today to question a Texan arrested last night in connection with the murder of Daly City bookie Martin Breslauer.

The suspect, Glenn McMains, 36, a truck driver who fled to Texas from San Francisco, was arrested at the home of his father in Edcouch, Tex., by San Mateo County Dep. Sheriff Milton Minehan and DA's Investigator Frank Marlowe.

Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore said that the officers and their prisoner left Edcouch by train Tuesday.

The investigators were hopeful that McMains may talk and give them vitally-needed information in connection with Breslauer's murder.

McMains waived extradition and agreed to accompany the officers back to California, indicating that he was willing to cooperate. Moore expects them to arrive Saturday.

McMains, one of four men charged with Breslauer's murder, rented the car used in the robbery, and was one of the trio which held up the big-time bookie, investigators claimed.

Belmont Makes Plans For Community's Annual Yule Party

Belmont's annual community Christmas party this year is being arranged with Mrs. Ernest Hodges of the recreation commission who has been named chairman.

Carol singing and a tree-lighting ceremony will open the celebration on Friday evening, Dec. 16. Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 21, the children will be treated to free movies at the Belmont Theater, where Santa Claus will have his temporary headquarters.

Initial plans were made at meetings of the recreation group earlier in the week, and a cooperative session held at the David R. Sears' home on Thursday morning. Mrs. Hodges outlined ideas of the recreation commission and committee heads were appointed.

Chairmen included Bob Manning, tree; fire department decorating; Mrs. Jack Thompson, program; Walter Straley, mimeograph; Mrs. David R. Sears, posters; Robert Batten, theater courtesy; Mrs. H. B. Kaster, theater tickets; Mrs. Lyle Jones, Santa's aides; Mrs. Willard Knapp, children's treat, and Mrs. Arne Hersom, publicity.

Committee members are being selected from the various neighborhood organizations in each area; Cipriani, Alameda, Ruth Ave., Belmont Park, Sixth Ave., Bayview Heights and Homeview. Distribution of tickets and program details will be announced through the news and by school and home notices.

Coastside Breakwater Group To Open Drive With Dinner

The opening gun of the Pillar Point Breakwater Committee's campaign to get work on the breakwater started during 1950 will be the "Breakwater Dinner" scheduled to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 14, at the Miramar Hotel, four miles north of Half Moon Bay.

Guests of honor at this dinner will include the two United States senators from California, congressmen from Bay Area districts, Col. Freeman S. Tandy, district engineer, Corps of Army Engineers; Col. Harry Pond, harbor planner, and members of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors and County Harbor Commission.

Co-sponsors of the dinner are the principal civic organizations of the Half Moon Bay area, including the Coastside Chamber of Commerce, Half Moon Bay Lions Club and the Pillar Point Improvement Assn.

At the dinner there will be an exhibition drill by the famous Spanishtown Dons, California State champion drill team, which has placed first during 1949 68 times in 71 competitive marching events. On Nov. 22 the Spanishtown Dons were selected by the Lions to be the main entertainment at the Lions International Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago next July.

Congress twice has approved the Pillar Point Breakwater project. In 1949 the House and Senate, with presidential approval, authorized its construction. In October, 1949, Congress voted $75,000 for final engineering work and the preparation of contract plans and specifications. When Congress convenes in January it will have before it a request from the Army Engineers for construction funds. The voting of these funds early in the session will enable work on the breakwater to start in the Summer of 1950.

When completed, the Pillar Point Breakwater will afford the only small craft harbor between San Francisco and Monterey. The harbor created by the breakwater will embrace 380 acres and provide anchorages, wharfs and berthing facilities for more than 600 fishing and pleasure craft. In addition, safe swimming beaches, a yacht harbor and additional recreation areas are a part of the harbor development plan.

31 Journeymen From So. San Mateo County Join Ranks of Skilled Labor at Exercises

Thirty-one journeymen from Southern San Mateo County joined the ranks of skilled labor at last week's apprenticeship graduation ceremonies in Burlingame High School.

More than 850 attended the exercises which marked the end of two to five years on-the-job training and classroom work for 125 apprentices in the county.

Speakers included: Dr. Robert Burns, president of the College of Pacific; W. P. Fuller III, South San Francisco; Neil Haggerty, secretary of the State Federation of Labor; and W. H. Diedrichsen, general chairman.

Archie J. Mooney, chief of the division of apprenticeship standards, presented the certificates of completion. U. S. Simonds Jr., Burlingame, was master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Francis P. Foote, Burlingame delivered the invocation.

Daniel McNeil Named to Post Of Night Sergeant at Belmont

Officer Daniel McNeil of the Belmont police force has been named night sergeant after Cgt. George Doyle asked that he be relieved of duty.

The action was taken last week at a special meeting of the force with Acting Chief James W. Lyall and Police Cmsr. Lyle Jones.

Doyle, who assumed the post when Lyall was named acting chief Monday, gave up his duties because he felt McNeil was better qualified.

"With your permission," Doyle wrote in a letter to Chief Lyall, "I would like to relinquish my position as your night sergeant in favor of Daniel McNeil, who in my opinion and the consensus of opinion of fellow officers would be more qualified through his experience and I am sure would be an asset to you in the making of a class 1 department."

Both Chief Lyall and Commissioner Jones commended Doyle for his lack of selfishness, and pointed out that Doyle would retain his seniority despite the voluntary change.

Lyall was given a vote of confidence at this morning's meeting and all officers pledged cooperation to Lyall in his attempts to "build a department of which we will all be proud."

The new chief said that Sgts. Wiley Nugent and McNeil will alternate each month on night and day duty. "In that way," the chief stated, "each will be familiar with all phases of the department."

RC Plant Signs Joint Union Pact

A new labor agreement was signed last week at the Johns-Manville Products Corp. plant on Middlefield Rd., Redwood City. This marks the first joint contract between the local Johns-Manville plant and two unions.

Joseph Dillon, international representative and secretary for Warehouse Local 655 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters AFL, signed for the production employes.

Leo Darby, secretary for Stationary Local 39 of the International Union of Operating Engineers AFL, signed for the watch engineers and maintenance employes.

P. V. Dybdal, plant manager, signed for Johns-Manville.

The new agreement grants the following:

a. 10 cents per hour increase across the board.

b. 4 cents and 6 cents per hour night shift differential.

c. Retroactive pay to Nov. 1, 1949.

Rudolph A. Rapsey Named To Succeed Justice Fahey

Rudolph A. Rapsey, veteran San Bruno city attorney and Republican party wheelhorse, Tuesday was named justice of the peace of the first township, succeeding Judge John J. Fahey.

The appointment, effective Jan. 1 and running for Judge Fahey's unexpired term, was made by the unanimous vote of the board of supervisors.

Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey of South San Francisco nominated Rapsey after the supervisors accepted Judge Fahey's resignation with regrets. The nomination was seconded by Alvin S. Hatch, Coastside supervisor.

Judge Fahey announced that he was resigning because of the pressure of private business, and because the judicial post was consuming nearly all of his time, although the $4200 a year was only for part-time work.

He also suggested that the supervisors install his successor on a full-time basis, but no mention was made of that proposal today by the board. Judge Fahey also had suggested the appointment of his law partner, Thomas L. Bocci, to succeed him, but this also was not discussed today.

In naming Rapsey, the supervisors selected a man who has been active in the affairs of the Republican party in San Mateo County. Rapsey is chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, which takes the lead in election campaigns.

For 21 years Rapsey has been city attorney of San Bruno, and at one time was city judge. He gave up the judgeship when the state supreme court ruled that one man could not hold two public offices at the same time, thus preferring to keep his city attorney post.

Rapsey lives at 252 Kains Ave., San Bruno, with his wife and two daughters. He is a graduate of the Hastings Law School.

The supervisors also:

Awarded to the American Trust Co. and Weeden and Co. the contract for the sale of $100,000 bonds of the Menlo Park Elementary School Dist. The two firms entered a joint bid having a net interest rate of 2.23153 per cent, the lowest of three bids submitted.

Called for bids on $575,000 bonds of the Redwood City Elementary School Dist. The bids are to be opened at the board's Jan. 3 meeting.

Postponed action until next Tuesday on a request by the director of the State Dept. of Professional and Vocational Standards that the supervisors name a successor to the late Henry Nadelweiss as chairman of the county rent advisory board.

Recorder Again Shows Upturn

Business at the County Recorder's Office is on the upswing for the second straight month, according to figures released today by Ruth Kirste, county recorder.

A total of 5525 papers were handled during November, as compared with 5488 in October and 4961 in September. More than $15,350 in fees were received this month, as compared with $13,390 in November, 1948.

Woman Injured In Belmont Mishap

A Burlingame woman suffered a cut on her left leg Monday night when she swerved her car to avoid hitting a truck and instead ran into a PG&E pole.

Mrs. Edna C. Morris, 41, of 2304 Poppy Dr., was treated at Community Hospital.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Mrs. Morris was driving on Bayshore Hwy. when she suddenly came upon a truck and trailer which had no rear lights. To avoid hitting the truck Mrs. Morris turned the car into Ralston Ave., Belmont, lost control and hit the pole.

'Bubbles' Must Stand Superior Court Trial

Wilhelm Von Stockke, 31-year-old baby sitter and female impersonator, will go on trial in superior court on burglary charges.

Von Stockke, known to his associates as "Bubbles," was held to answer to superior court Monday afternoon after a preliminary hearing in the justice court of Edward I. McAuliffe.

Robt. Dollar Co. Opens New Tube Plant Here

The Robert Dollar Co. opens its new H-K Gammatron Tube Division at 947 Broadway in Redwood City this week.

This plant will manufacture Gammatron electron tubes for commercial radio transmitting, television transmitting, and allied uses. It will also make tubes used by the medical profession for shortwave diathermy, and those used in industrial induction heating apparatus.

R. Stanley Dollar, president of The Robert Dollar Co., in making this announcement added: "The new Dollar plant was designed and constructed to give maximum efficiency in high production electron tube manufacture and to give the highest possible quality to the tubes manufactured. The interior of the building has been especially treated for dust proof operation and will be constantly kept filtered with dust-free air and pressurized to a point where the pressure within the building is always greater than the pressure outside of the building."

In addition to the manufacture of tubes the plant contains a very complete engineering laboratory where a great deal of research and development will be carried on in perfecting new tubes for television, very high frequency, and microwave use.

R. W. Bunce, who has been with The Robert Dollar Co., since the days of Dollaradio in 1928, will be manager of the plant, while Wes Withol, the chief engineer, has had 16 years' experience in tube engineering.

The new Heintz & Kaufman Gammatron Tube Division employs many of the personnel who formerly worked in the South San Francisco plant, and the company will continue making tubes for the military services in their various installations here and abroad.

Belmont Schools Planning Several Projects Tomorrow

Today is a busy day for children of the Belmont Elementary School Dist. It will mark the close of the Junior Red Cross Christmas box drive for children overseas and will be the date of a dance for seventh and eighth graders.

In the recent Junior Red Cross membership drive, total contributions reached $27.53. Contributions were received from 21 rooms, with all but three having 100 per cent membership.

In addition to payment of membership fees in the Junior Red Cross, membership for the Howard Foundation was also paid.

Of the funds collected, $1703 was budgeted by the pupils to aid in sending gift-filled boxes overseas. Children are hoping to fill all boxes by tomorrow when the drive closes.

The dance, dubbed the "Dance Bowl" by seventh and eighth graders, will be held from 8 until 10 p.m. in the Central School auditorium today.

The eighth graders will have charge of the program, while seventh grade pupils have undertaken decorations in a football motif.

Patrons include Mrs. Susan O'Brien, Mrs. Cora Chamberlain, Mrs. Jean Gray and Howard Kraus, principal of Louis Barrett School.

Eighth grade mothers will be in charge of refreshments.

Second grade Louis Barrett School pupils visited the Belmont Dist. Fire Station last week, accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. Irene Bellati and Miss Lillie Mae Palmer.

After being escorted through the station by Fire Chief Elbert E. Miller, the students wrote and illustrated stories about what they had seen.

Fire patrols have been formed at both schools, and have received instruction in use of the fire hose.

Those on the patrol from Central School are Michael Miller, captain; Jack Phillips, Charles Backman, Windy Scott, Bobby Woodhall, Chris Diehl and Paul Miller.

Mrs. Margaret Anderson, morning kindergarten teacher at Barrett School, is presently holding report card conferences with individual parents.

Similar conferences slated by Mrs. Betty Truce have been postponed until a later date because of illness in the family.

Mrs. Ernestine Croft, Central School kindergarten teacher, will meet with parents Monday evening.

Jerry Haney was elected class president of the eighth grade at Barrett School this week. Others named to office in the election were Arthur Harding, vice president; Joanne Savage, secretary; Mary Ellen Deuterman, treasurer, and Jim Rossetti and Ken Kuhl, sergeants-at-arms.

Special Session Call Sets Wheels Turning on Project

SACRAMENTO (WNS) — Gov. Earl Warren's announcement that he is calling a special session of the state legislature for Dec. 12 to consider four separate subjects, has set in motion a series of preparatory actions designed to present the problems to the solons immediately on their convening here.

The governor's first subject will be enactment of procedural changes in administration of social welfare to carry out the provisions of Proposition 2. This will involve transferring state social welfare workers back to counties, who came to the state when No. 4 was adopted a year ago.

A second part of this subject, that of making funds available to counties to make welfare payments from March 1 to June 30, will also be contained in this section of the session, but the governor doesn't know how much money will be involved.

The legislative budget committee met here and discussed this subject, but so far, no conclusion has been reached as to the procedure to be followed in making these funds, which are contained in the state budget for this year, available to the counties.

The second subject, the governor said, involves about $1,000,000 in aid to school districts which otherwise would have to close up shop before completing the 170 day school term required by law.

The program for the third subject, that of "enacting legislation which might be found desirable by law enforcement officers to cope adequately with sex offenders" will be developed in a conference of law enforcement officers to be held in Sacramento the week preceding the special session. The door is open for the submission of any type of legislation to cope with sex crimes.

The fourth subject, lobbying, apparently is the governor's answer to a challenge tossed out several months ago by James Roosevelt, Democratic contender for the governorship.

Roosevelt said during the Summer that the governor should call a special session of the legislature to cope with the lobbying problem. In addition to the Roosevelt challenge, the governor recently requested the district attorney of Sacramento County to make a full scale investigation of lobbying, and particularly lobbying which he said involved one assemblyman receiving money from George McLain, pension promoter.

The investigation is still under way, and so far nothing has come out of it which would indicate widespread, illegal practices. Another lobbying flareup came during the 1949 legislative session, when the district attorney investigated alleged rumors of irregularities in connection with loan company lobbyists, but this probe was dropped.

On top of the loan probe, the Arthur Samish articles in a national magazine created a stir during the Summer. All of which adds up to some recommended legislation, the nature of which the governor is not revealing until Dec. 12, when he said he would present a program to the legislature.

Mass. Club Here Elects Officers

The Massachusetts Club of East Palo Alto elected officers for the new year at the recent meeting in the American Legion Hall.

New officers are John Homan, president; Edmund Cruze, vice president; Mrs. John Homan, recording secretary; Mrs. Clarence Gomes, corresponding secretary and publicity director; and Laura Gomes, treasurer.

Members voted to co-sponsor the March of Dimes dance to be held Jan. 28 in the American Legion Hall. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party on Dec. 22. Entertainment and a Santa Claus are slated for the party.

Menlo Park Students Receive Encyclopedia Sets as Presents From City's Rotary Club Members

Sets of the Encyclopedia Britannica Junior were accepted by the student body presidents of three Menlo Park elementary schools Wednesday at a Menlo Park Rotary Club meeting.

The reference books were purchased through a gift of the Rotary Club and student body funds. Terry Terhune of Fremont School, Bim Beckman of Central, and Bob Boyens of Encinal accepted the sets on behalf of their respective student bodies.

Girls' glee clubs from Central and Encinal presented a program of Christmas music. The glee clubs are composed of sixth, seventh and eighth grade students and both are directed by Mrs. Mary D'Anna.

Michael Young and Robbie Rhodes played piano solos.

Western Ranch MEAT LOAF

SERVE WITH Creamed Potatoes Spiced Beets

2 lbs. ground beef
1 medium onion
¾ cup diced celery
¼ cup lard
½ cup diced green pepper
1 tablespoon salt
2 eggs
3 cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup water
½ cup tomato juice
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Chop onion. Brown onion and celery in lard. Combine with green pepper, salt, eggs, bread crumbs and water to make a dressing. Add half of the dressing (1½ cups) to the meat, mixing well. Pat out half the meat mixture in a two-quart loaf pan. Cover with remaining dressing, then top with remaining meat mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 1¼ hours. Baste twice with tomato juice and butter or margarine to keep loaf moist. Serves 8.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The annual council meeting is Thursday at 7:30 p.m. This is a must for all scouters and is the final big meeting of the year. Brewer's Hall in Burlingame, on the corner of Occidental and El Camino Real, has been selected as the site, and besides the evening's agenda, including the election of all council officers for the coming year, the movie, "A Day at Camp Pomponio" will be shown.

Council Pres. Phillip N. Lilienthal will direct the meeting and year's past performance will be discussed and plans laid for the coming year.

A good turnout of scoutmasters and explorer advisers greeted Field Executive John W. Wrentmore at the McKinley School last week for explorer orientation. Questions concerning the new program were answered and film strips concerning the adviser and program planning were shown. The explorers have voted to hold a regular monthly social commencing with a dance sponsored by Ship 145 in January. Explorer leader roundtables will be held every second Thursday of the month commencing in January.

Troop 153, San Carlos—The troop held its annual fall Court of Honor last week and Scoutmaster Les Mundell and the troop committee had their hands full with the awards presented. It was announced that the troop's birthday dinner will be held at the San Carlos Community Church Dec. 15 and that the movie, "A Day at Camp Pomponio," will be shown.

Ron Helstrup, Ron Arnbrust and Jere Watson all received the first class rank. Merit badges went to Walter Prindle, handicraft; Dick Alcock, woodworking, carpentry, civics and cooking; Mike Edgar, carpentry; Jere Watson, carpentry; John Stein, carpentry; Don Andrews, home repairs, carpentry, and Don Kroeck, art, cycling and woodcarving.

Troop 150, San Carlos—Scoutmaster Bill Jackson reports that Ken Burgess, Lee Sampson and Edward Drotleff all have qualified for their second class awards and that these boys have received merit badges: Al Haggett, first aid; Jerry Scheller, safety; Edward Jackson, safety; Chester Hunt, first aid; Frank Cameron, first aid; Tom Boxler, marksmanship and first aid; Fred Callarius, first aid, life saving and swimming; Bill Davey, first aid; Jim McGee, first aid; Ed Drotleff, first aid, and Bobby Long, first aid, reading and marksmanship.

Troop 122, Redwood City—Peter Valenti was inducted into the troop at the last meeting in which 25 Scouts participated.

Troop 110, Redwood City — John Garcia, Wethington Bishop, Dick Toledo and John Olsen all received their second class rank.

Troop 161, Belmont — Reports that are in show that Richard Hartman has been recognized for having the first aid merit badge and Fred Johnson has become a first class scout.

Troop 107, Menlo Park—Eric Millar and John Walling are now second class scouts, according to Floyd Beach, scoutmaster, and Glenn McManus has received the firemanship merit badge.

Troop 120, Redwood City — With 19 Scouts at the last meeting, Scoutmaster H. Stout reports that Richard Donner and Nick Barber Jr. are now first class scouts.

Troop 143, Redwood City—Last Sunday the troop spent the day at Sutro's in San Francisco. Part of the troop went ice skating and the other swimming. Such a good time was had by all that plans are being laid for a return trip in the future.

Troop 160, Redwood City—Scoutmaster Jack Grieg reports that David Hedge has received his first class rank and David Anderson has his second class rank. The following have all passed merit badges: Barry Anderson, pioneering, first aid, public health, safety, personnel health, firemanship, pathfinding and cooking.

Pack 15, Redwood City—Cubmaster Bob Anderson reports that Alex Beaubier and Craig Hamilton along with Tom Howard were accepted into the pack last week as Bobcats. Fred Nidiffer and Keith Reed received both their Wolf and Wolf gold awards, and Jim Ceedworth received his Wolf silver. Gary Cayton and Sam McDonald were awarded their denner's and assistant denner's stripes.

Pack 16, Redwood City—John Wilson and Jerry Robertson have received their Wolf awards and Ted Silen, Jerry Robertson, Andrew Sterling and Paul Olliges were awarded their Bear rank. Arrow awards went to Jerry Robertson, Ted Silen, John Hanson, Andrew Sterling and Paul Olliges.

Pack 52, San Carlos—Mickey Stahm is now a Bear cub according to Cubmaster C. L. Smalley.

PALO ALTO

MUCH DESIRED
2 BEDROOMS PLUS
It is usually difficult to locate an attractive brick and stucco two-bedroom home with an extra room for a den or sun porch in a well-established section, walking distance to schools, stores, and close to bus lines for as little as $12,900. We have one whose owner needs a larger house.

ALSO ANOTHER HOME
of many pluses in the lovely district between Pola Alto and Los Altos where the sites are over ½ acre and the grounds well kept. Among the pluses in this one-story, widespread home of two baths, two bedrooms and den are the knotty pine finished guest house or play room and bath, the workshop, the storage shed, the brick wall, the large oak, the fruit trees, and the very heavy hand-split shake roof. Good news on the price too—$21,950.

FOR THOSE WHO CAN USE
very deep lots (almost 300 feet) there are two splendidly arranged, well decorated and solidly built two-bedroom homes in the eastern part of Palo Alto, convenient to schools and fairly priced a little above $14,000.

Many, many other choice modern one-story homes of more than one bath in Palo Alto, Los Altos, Menlo Park and Atherton that we would like to show you.

Four Injured In Belmont Crash

Four persons, including two San Mateo residents, were recovering from minor injuries following an auto accident at El Camino Real and Ralston Blvd. in Belmont Saturday.

The crash occurred about 1 a.m. when an auto operated by Phylis Lucille Gaylord, 25, 1111 E. Santa Inez Ave., struck another driven by Lee Roy Britt, 29, of Oakland.

Police reported that the crash happened after Mrs. Gaylord had attempted to make a left-hand turn off El Camino Real. Her southbound vehicle collided almost headon with Britt's northbound car.

In addition to the drivers, two passengers were taken to Community Hospital for treatment and released to their own physicians. They were Maralyn Anderson, 23, San Leandro, a passenger in Britt's car, and Donald L. Gaylord, 27, of the San Mateo address, who was riding in the auto operated by his wife.

Attendants at the hospital said both men suffered facial and scalp cuts, while the two women were treated for severe abrasions about the knees and legs. All were treated for shock, the hospital reported.

Investigating officers reported that neither driver was cited.

Yule Fire Warning Given Residents

South San Mateo County residents were warned that family Christmas trees can become death traps as well as centers of joy and happiness.

The warning came from the Redwood City Dist. Insurance Agents Assn., through its president, Harry T. Walden.

Unless proper precautions are taken, the statement from Walden said, Christmas trees "can turn into a blazing torch capable of destroying an entire family."

The association pointed out that there are no fire-proof Christmas trees. "Once started," the statement declared, "the blaze is almost impossible to extinguish because the high resin and pitch content are perfect materials for fire."

The association listed five simple rules to be followed to make trees safe:

(1) Never use candles; (2) see that the electric wiring is not frayed; (3) light the tree only when the house is occupied; (4) use only non-inflammable tree decorations; (5) do not plug or unplug lights directly under the tree.

SC-Belmont Club Sets Speeches

The San Carlos-Belmont Toastmasters' Club Monday will present the first of a series of discussions on matters of current interest.

Monday's slate of five short speeches will concern the general theme of statism. Government spending, higher taxes, civil rights and next year's election will be dealt with in general. Speakers will be William Tyndall, Frederick Schroeder, William McMurray, George Greaves and Dale Callis. Their assigned topics will be "The Welfare State", "Your Health is Political", "How to Win with the Republicans", "Our Face in China—Is It Red?" and "How Well Is Our City Managed?"

Rex Land will serve as toastmaster, and the general critic will be Roy Rodenhuis. The meeting will be held at the Gables in Belmont.

School Landscape Plans to Be Drawn

John T. Boucher of San Carlos up preliminary landscape architect's plans for the Belmont Elementary School Dist.

The district's trustees approved Boucher's early estimates at the meeting at Central School. Boucher is slated to submit his preliminary master plan to a later meeting.

Trustee Ray Rhodes was authorized to confer with Architect Oscar Price and Edgar Parsons of the State Division of School House Planning on repairs to the Central School building.

Mrs. Mark Nesbit, district superintendent, say that remodeling planned includes heating and lighting overhaul; painting and new linoleum in two rooms, and a new entrance for the assembly hall.

Because of the absence of Mrs. Velda Row because of illness, fellow trustees tabled most other matters until another meeting set Dec. 19, Mrs. Nesbit stated.

SC City Employes Plan Yule Party

The first annual San Carlos city employes Christmas party will be held at the American Legion Hall on Bush St. tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

Included among the 120 persons expected to attend are members of the city council, the planning, civil service and recreation commissions and other employes and their spouses.

Working on the affair are City Clerk Kathleen M. Grant, Councilman Newell F. Sharkey, Police Lt. George E. Seely, Recreation Dir. Warren Hayden and others.

The program includes dinner, refreshments, dancing and a "surprise" entertainment program.

'Youth In Crime' Is FBI Agent's Topic at Belmont PTA Meeting

Michael H. Farrin, FBI agent from San Francisco headquarters, emphasized the five most important influences on the life of a child in his talk, "Youth in Crime," to the Belmont Parent Teacher Assn. last week at the Waltermire St. auditorium.

Mr. Farrin, in speaking on the influences in a child's life, said "First, the home is most important in conditioning children's conduct, while his associates, his church and school and governing law are the factors which should influence him for good behavior when he strives to make his place in community life."

Mr. Farrin was introduced by Lyle Jones, attorney for the Dept. of Justice in San Francisco.

Mrs. Mark Nesbitt, school superintendent, explained the responsibility program developed by San Mateo County School Curriculum Dept. and the 17th Dist. PTA leaders. Each month a desirable character trait will be integrated with school and home study. Mrs. Nesbitt said, "Parents should make conditions favorable for good conduct, and develop good attitudes by working through the child's love of approval."

Mrs. Lyle Jones, program chairman, recommended that the December meeting be a silver tea to benefit the El Portal del Sol School for Handicapped Children.

Mrs. David R. Sears, president, explained the reasons for backing the Creative Talent exhibit, a free public hobby show to be held Jan. 26 to 29 at Sequoia High School. Any child or group of children between the ages of 12 and 18 may enter the show. A cash donation to assist in purchasing prizes was voted.

An increased budget for publicity was voted and additional committee workers on the PTA Newsette and school notices were announced as Mmes. Wilfred May, John Daley and B. Dillinger.

Mrs. Carl Valladeo was named chairman of the life membership committee. Appointed as her assistants were Mmes. Arne Hersom, Donald Suggs, H. H. Wright and Walter Straley.

Mrs. Genevieve Roarty's class won the room count for the October meeting.

Second grade mothers, Mmes. Divird, Thomas Sturgen, Charles Diehl, Raymond Hawkins and H. A. Cook, assisted Mrs. William Larsen and Mrs. Michael Miles in serving refreshments.

Annual 'Y' Dinner Set for Dec. 15

The annual membership dinner of the Sequoia YMCA branch council will be held at the YMCA Bldg. in Redwood City Thursday, Dec. 15, it was announced today by W. H. Doxsee, board of managers chairman.

The speaker for the occasion will be Dr. John A. Bartky, dean of the School of Education, Stanford University. Dr. Bartky will speak on the subject, "Educating Children is Everybody's Business."

In addition to the principal address of the evening, Andrew Spinas, chairman for the annual meeting event, announced that recognition of leaders, election of new officers, and special musical numbers would be presented. In addition to Spinas, the annual meeting committee is comprised of the Rev. Ronald White, C. G. Uhlenberg and "Y" Executive Sec. Kenneth T. Osman.

Fleming Bound To Superior Court

Clifford E. Fleming, 37-year-old San Carlos sheet metal worker, was bound over to superior court on three counts of lewd and lascivious conduct Tuesday after a preliminary hearing.

The hearing was held in Judge Rupert C. Johnson's court. One of the two little girls who have accused Fleming of immoral acts testified, but the other was excused because of illness.

The second child is slated to testify when the proceedings are continued next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

San Carlos Issues Ten New Bldg. Permits

Permits for 10 new dwellings were issued by the San Carlos building inspector's office within the past week, according to a report compiled by Bldg. Insp. Vincent Murphy.

The new permits brought total valuation of new construction for the year to $3,485,900 to date. Included were 13 permits totaling $106,400 for the week ending at noon today.

In addtion to permits for 10 homes, two called for alterations and one was for a miscellaneous job, Murphy's report stated.

Devil's Slide Meeting Set

County officials are to meet with a state highway engineer at Devil's Slide to plan action on making the dangerous Coastside area out of bounds.

The decision for the meeting was made Tuesday at a conference attended by the board of supervisors, Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore and John Skeggs, state district engineer.

Moore and County Engineer M. A. Grant are to set a meeting, within the slide area itself, with a state highway engineer to discuss closing parts of Coast Hwy. to parking, and posting the area in which vehicles will not be allowed to stop.

Moore showed the supervisors a map depicting the areas of greatest danger. At one point six persons have been lost, and three rescued. At another, three died and three others were saved.

The supervisors still are hoping that the state will declare the area a game preserve, barring it to fishermen. However, reports from Sacramento are not promising, Chmn. Henry W. Edmonds said today, although the board will continue to check into the proposal.

No Inconvenience For SC Police

Percy Lutz, a San Francisco painter, made it convenient for San Carlos police Tuesday when they arrested him on charges of drunken driving.

Police reported that Lutz, who is 49, drove past the San Carlos City Hall and had scarcely turned the corner to head east on San Carlos Ave. before he was arrested.

While Officer Frank Lucero was booking Lutz, two others on the force, Lt. George Seely and Officer Douglas Ogilvie, were on call describing Lutz as "a dead man in a car out here."

Lutz proved very much alive, police said.
